

CherryArts Festival at Stanley

Call for Food Trucks

September 16, 17, 18, 2016

National Art & Local Flavor

Located at Stanley Marketplace, produced by the Cherry Creek Arts Festival

CherryArts Festival at Stanley, produced by the Cherry Creek Arts Festival, is collaboration with the yet-to-be-opened Stanley Marketplace featuring national art and local flavor. The weekend includes a juried art show with 100 exhibiting national artists, live entertainment, children's activities and more.

Stanley Marketplace is a former aviation building that's being transformed into a food-centric, community inspired hub on the border of Aurora and Stapleton. Opening Fall of 2016, Stanley will include a beer hall, multiple restaurants, a fitness center and yoga studio, office space, an events center, and numerous retail options. www.stanleymarketplace.com

You are invited to participate at CherryArts Festival at Stanley!

OPPORTUNITY TO MARKET YOUR BUSINESS TO FUTURE AUDIENCES

CherryArts Festival at Stanley (CAFS) is looking for food trucks to sell their cuisine at the event Saturday and Sunday September 17th 10:00 am – 7:00 pm and Sunday September 18th 2016, 10:00 am – 5:00 pm.

In this second year CAFS will provide culinary partners with:

- Feature listing in the festival guide and on the CAFS website
- Pre-event publicity advertising from media sponsors

We are asking in return that our culinary partners provide us:

- 15% of daily gross sales (Last years Food Trucks made an average of $3,000.00 in sales over the weekend)
- To be a self-contained mobile food facility
- Must provide enough food to sustain an estimated 10,000 + guests over the weekend
- Send us a listing of items you plan on selling and their prices
- How much space do you require and other needs
